NRITYAN JALI

Register Here!

Overview:

Nrityanjali is the grand opening event of Elan & nVision Fest, a prestigious classical dance competition that celebrates the timeless beauty of Indian classical dance forms. This event brings together dancers who fuse grace, expressive storytelling, and intricate movements to create a soulful, captivating experience. Nrityanjali is not just a competition; it's a celebration of culture, creativity, and the spirit of dance, transporting the audience to a world of serenity, imagination, and profound emotion.

Format:

- This is a solo/duo/group classical dance competition.
- Each group can have maximum of 6 members.
- The event consists of a screening round and an offline round.
- For the screening round, the participant need to send a recorded video of them performing.
- All the shortlisted participants for the offline round will be invited to perform during the fest.
- The results will be announced by the judge based on the performance in the offline round.

Rules and Regulations:

- You can perform in any Indian classical dance form, however there are no separate judging categories for the different dance forms.
- The use of props in the performance is highly encouraged.
- The maximum duration of the performance should be 5 minutes.
- Any illegal or unethical act related to the competition will lead to immediate disqualification.
- The decision of the organizers and judges shall be final and binding.

Judging Criteria:

- Choreography: This criterion evaluates the creativity and structure of the dance routine. The judges will look at the originality, flow, and arrangement of movements, as well as how effectively the choreography tells a story or conveys emotion while adhering to the classical form
- Costume and Presentation: The costume and overall presentation are key elements of classical dance. Judges will evaluate how appropriate and authentic the attire is to the chosen dance form and how well it enhances the overall visual appeal of the performance.
- Expressions and Body Language: Classical dance is as much about expression as it is about movement. Judges will focus on how well the dancer conveys emotions, communicates the story, and engages the audience through facial expressions and body language.
- Rhythm: The synchronization of movements with the beat of the music is crucial in classical dance. Judges will assess how well the dancer maintains rhythm throughout the performance, including the accuracy of their timing, pace, and consistency with the musical composition.
